The quantity of items for this auction necessitates that we summarize the listing. If we attempted to make a listing it would be too overwhelming.

We will start selling at 9:00 am under tent & will most likely begin a second ring soon after to try and get thru as much as we can.

Please plan to attend, you won't be disappointed. Continue to watch our website for updated photos as we work thru & continue to find more quality items that have been put away for years.
