IT'S A "SNOW JOB"

(General Consignment & Betty Snow's Business)

Mon Eve, June 25th, 2012 • 6:00 PM

St. Charles Exit (#52) off I-35 • 1595 G-50 HWY, St. Charles 50240

Hello Folks: Yes we have the correct title on this auction. For many years Betty Snow operated her business as "It's a Snow Job". After many years of shows, county and state fairs, Betty is retiring and will offer her entire inventory from her craft work at auction.

Betty had a niche for painting scenes & catchy phrases on anything and everything that would sit still long enough for her to put a paint brush on it! As we set up for this auction, Betty will assist us to make certain the displays are correctly erected. Our intention is to create an atmosphere that will feel like a show. Many items will be offered in flats, totes & individually. The display racks & stands will also be sold. This auction will offer a number of nice antique hand tools & two man saws that have not been painted on, as well as the equipment trailer. This will be an opportunity for someone to be in the business immediately.

Plan to attend this fun auction as we wish Betty the very best in retirement. We will have photos & more listed items as we unpack and set up for this auction.

Terms of Sale: All bidders must register w/proper I.D. to obtain a bid number. All items must be settled for day of sale w/cash or Good Check. Not responsible for theft, accidents or inadvertent errors in advertising. Announcements day of sale take precedence over printed advertising.
