

THE WEBSTER WINCHESTER COLLECTION JOAN AND THE LATE TOM WEBSTER

September 24th • 10 am

2705 MAIN ST • UNIONVILLE, MO

As Joan is downsizing, she will be selling their collection. The Websters were well known for their Winchester collection & even wrote a price guide book for rare Winchester collectibles. There are several rare and hard to find cardboard displays, 5 piece window displays, JR rifle Core Matches print, hundreds of advertising prints, metal signs, Winchester Store wood cookstove and Parlor stove, Winchester oak ice box, Winchester Store fans, Winchester Oak display cabinet, other Winchester items to include butcher knives, drill bits, fishing rods, toolbox, saw, pipe wrench, screwdriver, flash light, plate, gun scabbards, brass shells, hat, blasting cap box, stove door, calendars, risky prints from the 60's, other like items: rare Iver Johnson lady print, rare Western print, early ladies with gun prints, several round oak stove calendars, unique curved glass & metal showcase, Phillip R Goodwin items, Horton Bristol fishing rods calendar, ornate Indian lamps, Indian bookends, several Sterling silver Indian spoons, several deer horns some very large ones, fly traps, duck decoy weights, advertising items with deer on them, large cuckoo clock with animals carved on it, brass and horn powder horns.

Preview from 2 to 6 pm on September 23rd.

Food and restrooms available. Indoor sit-down style auction.

Check out pictures on auctionzip or our Facebook page.

