AUCTIONEER'S NOTE: Mary Etta Clevenger has been collecting for 52 years and has owned The Gas Buggy Antique Store for approximately 20 years. Since she has sold the building and is retiring, everything will be sold absolute to the highest bidder. Folks, bring your trailers and trucks, because everything must be removed from the building on sale day, no ifs and no buts. The new owner takes possession of the building as soon as I leave the auction. Thanks - Norman

This will be a large auction, so come spend the day with us. This is only a very short listing. Lots and lots more not listed. For pictures and more, see our website or call the numbers listed below.
